THURSDAY NOVEMBER 8, 1894.

What Next? We neked this question yesterday. We ask it again this morning. To the northern people a Republican victory such as that gained yesterday may indicate no thing more than new legislation on politico-economic questions, whilst to the southern people it may foreshadow sectional legislation and renewed persecu-The solid South recognizes the Republican party as a party which is always ready so to legislate as to keep this section under the control of the North. What is called the "Solid South" stands to-day on the defensive as it has stood ever since the close of the war between the States. And it is a significant fact that, despite the overwhelming defeat of Democratic party in the Northern States day before yesterday, the South proper still stands solid. Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri each is reported to have elected a ma jority of Democrats to the next National House of Representatives. Maryland and West Virginia never secoded nor pretended to secede from the Union, and they falled to vote with the South last

Thank Heaven, the Democrats will have a Democratic President until March 3, 1897, and in 1896 a new House of Representatives will be elected. So no new national election-laws can be passed be fore that time, and surely the Democrats may hope for better success in 1896 than in 1891. So that the situation is not as deplorable as it was for years during and immediately following reconstruction days. We may feel perfect confidence that there will be nothing in the future which we need fear half as much as we rule in the days when Zach. Chandler Charles Sumner, Oliver P. Morton, Ben Butler, and the rest of the gang of the condition of constant apprehension.

The Republicans in Congress will not dare to undertake the restoration the work of restoration, but the businessmen of the country will not lend their aid to the scheme. Besides, Mr. Reed and Mr. Harrison each desires to run for President in 1896, a 1 neither of them will be willing to see anything done by the Republican Congress which will increase Governor McKinley's chances for the Republican nomination. We venture to say, too, that notwithstanding the will have in the next Congress, there will ties to the sugar-planters of Louisiana or the sugar-makers of any other State. The Gorman tariff law is the law of the land, and it will remain the law of the land. It would be almost ludicrous to see President Cleveland and Tom Reed acting together on the tariff question. But this is exactly what will never be Gorman tariff will be left unmolested. We repeat, therefore, that the Democrats need not fear hostile legislation stances totally different from those which now surround them. And then there will be the silver ques tion to give the Republicans no end of Nobody can tell what effect the Republican victory of last Tuesday will have upon the fate of that question. The probability would seem to be that no objectionable silver legislation will be resorted to so long as Mr. Cleveland remains President or the Republicans retain control of the House of Representa tives. Quay, Cameron, Reed, and all the rest of the Republicans who have pretended to be willing to do something for the silverites will now probably be found chanting the merits of monometallism. Or they may compromise by taking steps to provide for another international bion any subject before 1897; and that before that time they may be in circum-

metallic conference. But what will the silverites of the Democratic party now do? Well, as we have argued, their hands are tied, and they will find it difficult to get the Republicans to until them. Some of them will feel now as if they had gotten out of a dilemma; but others of them will consider themselves bound to agitate for silver reform so long as the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 shall remain unprovided for, though they might consistently under existing circumstances turn the whole matter over to the Re publican party.

Don't Be Too " Previous." Baltimore Sun philosophizes as fol-

"It will not do for the Republicans to stretch the meaning of the election to far. It cannot be made to stretch to 1896. The presidential election of that year wil The presidential election of that year will not be affected in the slightest degree by that of this, except in so far as this year's popular rebuke will tend to strengthen and soldify the party in New York. A thrashing does a party good sometimes, and it is likely to help the party in New York. New York's position as a Democratic State on distinctly Democratic issues is not affected."

The Sun is right. Any number of unexpected things may happen between now and 1866, when the Democrats will have a chance to carry the whole country as they did during Harrison's administra tion. The Sun rules out Hill as a possible ominee for President in 1896, but say nothing as to Cleveland.

The Trolley for Pleasure-Seekers. Richmond has always stood by the trolley and insisted that it was capable of no and of good things. The possibilities of electricity are always called to mind when we see the word "trolley." Nowhere eise, we suppose, has the trolley been more generally "beliked" than in this city. Nevertheless, amongst the possibilities of the trolley we in Richmond have not yet included "trolley parties." The Trolley for Pleasure-Seekers.

In Boston the electric company not only reserves cars to be had on demand for such parties, but has recently constructed special cars for the exclusive use of those pleasure-seekers. The West-End Comelegantly-appointed special cars, which are to be placed at the disposal of pri-vate parties. We quote from the New York Recorder as follows:

York Recorder as follows:

"The cars were introduced as the result of the growing popularity of trolley parties last summer, says the Street Railroad Gasette, when special cars were chartered for their exclusive use. The two parlor-cars are 20 feet long by 7 feet 4 inches in width, and the bodies were made by J. M. Jones's Sons, of West Troy, N. Y. They are equipped at each end with sliding doors similar to those used in the elevated railway-coaches. When one of each pair of doors is open the other door is opened also."

Let the public everywhere begin the use

Let the public everywhere begin the use of these trolley-party cars and there is no telling how much pleasure may be found in them. They can easily be made comfortable in any weather.

Harper's Weekly has called attention to the immense volume of water that onstitutes Niagara Falls, Engineers have estimated the total water-power of these falls at seven millions of horse power. The Weekly says: "The estimate, to be sure, is in the main only a guess, but when the area drained into the lakes above Lake Ontario, and passing through the Niagara river be considered, the guess or estimate does not seem to be too large. The water surface of the great lakes above Ontario is $4000 source miles; the water-Ontario is 84,000 square miles; the water-shed of these lakes is 240,000 square miles—more than twice the area of Great Britain and Ireland.

Britain and Ireland.

"The total length of shore-line is 5,000 miles, while the volume of water is 6,000 cubic miles, of which Lake Superior contains almost one half. The rate of outflow at Buffalo is from 217,000 to 275,000 cubic feet per second, while the fall of the cataract is 165 feet. The volume of water in the lake is such that it has been water in the lake is such that it has been estimated that even if no rain fell the flow of the river would be continued at its present rate for 100 years—that is, it the lakes could be gradually drained. "These are very large figures, but in the main they are the results of exact measurements. The small water-powers in the world are uneven and are affected in the world are uneven and are affected by floods and droughts, but this great power at Niagara is as constant as anypower at Niagara is as constant as anything in this world can be, not even the ice in the severest and longest winter ever known appreciably changing it. The present plan is intended only to utilize 125,000 horse-power, and the turbines now in place are only for a small part of this. Other turbine wheels will be put in place to the tower grows. The other turbine whech as the demand for the power grows. The general plan of the company contemplates the ultimate use of 450,000 horse-power on the American side and a like amount in Canada. Room for Hope. The Republican party was four years ago the victim of just such a landslide as that which the Democrats have just experienced. They were routed horse, foot, and dragoons. In 1872 the Democrats were so "feeble a folk" that their na-Horace Greeley for President. About the ame time there were only seven Democrats in the United States Senate. In 1874 the Democrats routed the Republicans. In fact we might say that the rule for each party seems to be:

"Here you go up, up, up, And here you go down, down, down." The Washington Post reads the signs of the times as follows:

"In changing the complexion House of Representatives the people have made themselves secure. They are now guaranteed three years of peace, barring little mischlef that the Fifty-third Congress may still achieve, and they have notified the Democratic party that its pardon in the future depends upon its repentence and its acts of explation." We interpret this language to mean that it rests with the Democrats themselves whether they shall elect the next Pres. dent or not. That's the way we read it

"The Republicans cannot tell whether tariff question or not."-Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

This is nonsense. There can be no Republican changes in the tariff law until we are done with Mr. Cleveland. Two years hence we shall be electing a President and Congress to revise and improve the tariff. There will be no tariff changes of importance in three years, and the experience of the nation in that time ought to be worth something.—Cincinnati Commercial. If we read it aright, the Commercial's immense majority which the Republicans language means exactly what ours means be no attempt on their part to pay boun- paper that the Republicans cannot tell whether they favor additional legislation on the tariff question or not.

Hon, C. W. Russell, of West Virginia, sed to tell a story of a constituent of his, who, living near the Pennsylvania line, and having had his horses taken by force, his cows killed, his house seen, and unless they work together, the burned and his wife and children turned out of doors, complained bitterly to Mr. Russell of his hard fate, saying that it was "ridiculous." The Democratic defeat of Tuesday last seems to have been "ridiculous" in that sense.

> In a cartoon in yesterday's edition, the Washington Post attributes the Demo cratic defeat of Tuesday to "pension parsimony," the "income-tax," "Tam many," and "tariff folly."

> How true is it that men of large in comes are men of large influence, and that tinkering with the tariff is dangerous work for any party to engage in

It is worthy of mention that the House of Representatives which has just been elected will, aided by the United States Senate, count the vote for the next President, or else the House itself will elect the next President, each State casting only one vote.

One hundred thousand majority in New York is equal to not more than 30,00 majority in Virginia. However, we apprehend that this fact will afford but little satisfaction to the galiant Democrats of the Empire State.
